++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Dry for most overnight. Turning cloudy and damp on Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry this evening, with spells of late sunshine for many. Skies inland remain generally clear overnight, but low cloud moves into coastal areas, bringing a few outbreaks of light rain to southern and western areas through the early hours. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Friday:
After a bright start for many, skies cloud over and the outbreaks of light rain spread inland. Some showers could develop in the afternoon, along with a few sunny spells. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Showery throughout the outlook, and these quite often heavy, with a risk of thunder and hail. Sunny spells accompany the showers on Saturday and Monday but Sunday is looking cloudy.
